

4th Grade Human Growth & Development: Hygiene Objectives

1. Student will state ways to care for his/her changing body during puberty
2. Student will be able to list important health habits
3. Student will understand the importance of infection control and express infection prevention strategies